

Trends in electricity consumption per dwelling

Very different trends of electricity consumption per household: significant decrease in 3 new member countries (SK, BG, and CZ), partly due to substitution of other fuels to electricity for thermal uses; very rapid progression in southern countries due to air conditioning, and in Baltic countries.

