

Energy prices for households have increased by 40% between 2004 and 2009 (9%/yr). In 2009, they have dropped by 9% with the economic crisis (-27% for oil, -3.5% for gas). In 2010 the trend is reversed (+5%).

Since 2005, the price of electricity is increasing (+17% between 2005 and 2010).

Regular decline before 1999 (-15%) followed by a relative stability until 2004;

*Price index at constant prices calculated from nominal prices for the EU (source: DG-TREN Statistical Pocketbook 2010 for 1990-2008; 2009-2010 Enerdata) ; average price weighted on the basis of energy market shares