

- Strong reduction of the average consumption per dwelling in 2009 in most countries: -3% at EU level compared to -1.1%/yr over 2000-2008; large contraction (closed to 5% or >5%) in 8 countries (Belgium, Germany, Poland, Denmark, UK, Estonia, Ireland & Croatia)
- Energy consumption per dwelling below 2000 level in almost 2/3 of countries in 2009; strongest reduction in Slovakia and Slovenia (-20%), followed by Sweden, France and The Netherlands (~-15%); above 2000 level in 6 countries (Greece, Cyprus, Malta, Finland, Latvia & Czech Rep.).

