

- Increase of the electricity consumption for all branches until 2008, except textiles, partly linked to substitution of electricity for fuels.
- Paper has become the second largest electricity intensive branch after chemicals
- In 2009, decrease of the electricity consumption in all branches.

