

- Rapid decrease from 2000 to 2008 for chemicals, transport equipment, machinery and textile. Slower reduction for non metallic minerals, food and primary metals and in contrary increasing trends for paper.
- In 2009 drop for textile, paper and non metallic. Increasing intensities for food, primary metals, machinery and transport equipment (+4%)

