

- In 2009, increasing share of chemicals and food in manufacturing value added and decreasing share of equipment in almost all countries, except for Croatia and Poland, and metals in many countries

Variation in the share of each branch in total value added in 2009

